

2006 Awards and Scholarships

Awards for outstanding contributions to the Idaho library community have been awarded to:

2006 Librarian of the Year

Luise House, Director of the Mountain Home Library was selected to receive the "Librarian of the Year" award. Luise recently completed a $1.5 million expansion and renovation of the Mountain Home Library and is currently working hard to offer new programming to all segments of her community.

2006 Idaho School Library Media Program of the Year

Marlene Earnest and the Vallivue School District #139, were the first recipients of the "Idaho School Library Media Program of the Year."

2006 Legislators of the Year

Maxine Bell and Scott Bedke, were recognized for their support of libraries as the "Legislators of the Year."

2006 Friend, Trustee, or Special Services to Libraries

No nominations were received for Friend, Trustee, or Special Services to Libraries.

2006 ILA Scholarship

Shirley Hansen, of the Idaho Commission for Libraries, was selected to receive the ILA Scholarship. Shirley is currently pursuing a Masters in Library and Information Science.

Gardner Hanks Scholarship

Anna-Lise K. Smith of ISU was selected to receive the fifth annual [2006] Gardner Hanks Scholarship. Anna-Lise is currently pursuing a Masters in Library and Information Science.