

ILA Annual Conference Manual Revision Committee Report

November 14, 2005

The revised conference manual is near completion. I want to thank Barbara Greever for providing excellent feedback on the draft copy that was posted to the “Officers Only” link in October. The committee is currently editing the draft and gathering sample forms and documents to add to the appendix.

If other Board members would like to comment on the posted draft, please feel free to send comments or corrections to me through November 30th. We expect to have a final copy of the manual completed by December 15, 2005.

Respectfully submitted,
