PNLA Conferences

- Potential site for 2008 PNLA is the Red Lion (formally the Templin's), Post Falls, Idaho
- Posted conference announcements

Leadership Institute

- PNLA requests sponsorship from ILA in the amount of $1000
- Mentor nominations have been collected by Mary DeWalt, Leadership Institute coordinator, and will be forward to the PNLA board for their approval

Membership

- Membership renewal notices have been sent to 23 lapsed members

YRCA

- Working with Amanda Pittman, Idaho YRCA Rep, to post LibIdaho announcement on book nominations (due February 1)

In progress

- Talking Points for the value of PNLA membership
- Fund raising for PNLA Leadership Institute
- Next PNLA Board meeting February 17 - 19

Advocacy

- The March 1 issue of the PNLA Journal will be on advocacy and marketing. I'll submit an article on the State Library's multi-year Summer Reading Advocacy project, developed with the Summer Reading Advocacy Steering Committee. The committee is composed of library directors and program coordinators from throughout the state.

Respectfully submitted,

Anne Abrams
PNLA Rep
