

Idaho Library Association
President's Report
November 18, 2005

Val Fenske

I have not had an opportunity to finish putting together committees following our October Board meeting. I will be meeting with Tamra Hawley-House to finish updating the Regional Conference Manual sample section. Arrangements have been made for November and January meeting. January meeting location will be the meeting room at the University Inn.