Report of the Special/Academic Division Chair

Amy Vecchione

- Drafted, edited, sent out for review, and officially submitted the minutes of the Division meeting for the Special and Academic Division during the Idaho Library Association Conference in Burley, Idaho.
- Led meeting of membership to determine membership priorities as we enter the budget issues.
- Met with the Board as a group drafting ideas and concepts to increase membership and assist in providing resources to the membership of the Idaho Library Association.
- Drafted a list of the membership benefits for the Idaho Library Association web site.
- Drafted and reported on the summary of the budget logistics, but could not attend the actual conference call meeting due to a scheduling error.
- Derived a list of next year's ideas for conference sessions with speaker contacts and other information.
- Recruited several individuals to be a part of the Idaho Librarian.
- Drafted Membership survey for priorities on spending, but am not sure if that is still needed.
- Working with Melissa Gains and the membership committee.
